Generous People Made Holidays Joyful for Family Despite Fire

By HARRY BARNES
Press-Record Staff Writer

What had threatened to be a bleak Christmas for Mr. and Mrs. John Earhart and their three children — whose trailer home and all of its contents were destroyed by fire Dec. 16 — became a joyous holiday through the generosity of Quad-Cities.

Christmas gifts, clothing, food, a tree with all the trimmings and even items of furniture were contributed by church groups, individuals, business firms and veteran organizations in an effort to ease the loss suffered in the fire which took the family's entire wardrobe, household appliances, Christmas gifts and a color television set.

The fire of undetermined cause gutted the 65-foot mobile home at 388 Nameoki Drive at 10:40 a.m. on Dec. 16 while the children were in school and Mr. and Mrs. Earhart were downtown completing their Christmas shopping.

The three children are Timothy, 14, and Melissa, 12, both of whom attend Prather Junior High School, and Robin, six, who is a pupil at the Logan School Annex.

Since the fire, the family has been living in a small three-room house at 206 Nameoki Drive which Earhart owns. It virtually is unfurnished except for items of furniture contributed since the story of the fire and an appeal for help were published in the Press-Record.

Needed Their Help
"It was wonderful the way people responded," Earhart said Saturday. "I don't know what we would have done without their help."

He said several business firms contributed food, toys and clothing and individuals "brought all kinds of things," including new toys and new clothing to give the children a happy Christmas.

One person delivered a bed complete with mattress. The Salvation Army provided clothing and food, and a number of church groups contributed toys and clothing, Earhart said.

"I want to extend my thanks and those of my entire family for the wonderful way people helped us," he added.

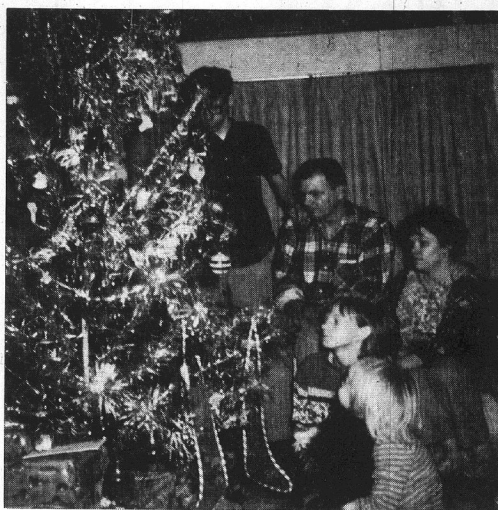

A big surprise was the Christmas tree and the manner in which it was delivered.

Decorated Tree Appears
"We were all gone the day before Christmas," Earhart related, "and when we came home... there it was. The tree had been put up while we were gone."

"It was decorated and Christmas gifts were around the tree," he said. The tree was the gift of a veteran organization and the decorating was done by neighbors.

The fire that destroyed the mobile home apparently started in a bedroom. Firemen of the West Granite City fire station said the cause has not been determined.

The Earharts have no relatives here. Earhart is employed at McDonnell-Douglas Aircraft Corp.

The Earhart home was destroyed by fire Dec. 16 but the family was able to enjoy the holiday season in the traditional fashion, thanks to the response by the local public. 15 Injured in 22 Traffic Mishaps During Weekend

Six persons were injured in one accident and nine others were hurt in traffic mishaps occurring in and near the Quad-City area during the weekend. A total of 22 accidents was reported.

Richard L. McCullister, 19, of 2206 State St., a soldier on leave from Germany, was injured seriously at 10:50 p.m. Christmas Day when the auto he was driving struck a tree in the 3300 block of Washburn Avenue. Five passengers in the car were injured.

Police said McCullister, charged with reckless driving, was heading south on Washburn Avenue when the car slid on loose gravel and dirt near the intersection of Clark Avenue. The vehicle skidded approximately 300 feet before striking a tree at 3319 Washburn Ave., police said.

McCullister was treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital for lacerations to the forehead and possibly to the head injuries and was transferred to Scott Air Force Base Hospital, Belleville. His condition was reported fair.

Passengers in the McCullister vehicle admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital, included Frances Young, 15, daughter of Wayne Witz, Gardenville, Mo., who complained of pain in the right hip, left knee and neck area, had abrasions to the left hand and had x-rays taken of the skull, spine, knee, pelvis and hip. She was in fair condition.

Joyce Abbott, 11, daughter of Fay Abbott, 3221 Rodger Ave., suffered a possible head injury, complained of pains and underwent x-rays of the skull and spine; Cardace Wiley, 11, daughter of Mrs. Helen Wiley, 1951 Joy Ave., who had pain in both hips, sustained a possible head injury and had x-rays taken.

Her sister Cynthia Wiley, 13, of 1951 Joy Ave., who was unconscious and underwent x-rays of the legs, skull and spine; and Rebecca Wiley, 17, also of the Joy Avenue address, who had bruises of the right leg, right

Green Cards to be Issued Young Voters

"Special green registration cards will be issued to voters in federal elections under the age of 21 by Miss Editha Horz, Madison County clerk, as a result of the Supreme Court ruling upholding congressional action.

County clerks have been accepting registrations since last August from persons between 18 and 21, and Miss Horz reported that 1,041 have signed up so far in this county.

"We are going to use a green voters card so it will be easily distinguishable from the pink card adults carry," she said.

The young voters will be eligible to cast ballots for U.S. president, senators and representatives but will remain ineligible to vote in state or local elections.

Local Woman Has 100th Birthday on Christmas

By VALERIE EVENDEN
Press-Record Staff Writer

A century of living is hardly visible on the face of Mrs. India Jackson, who accepts the vast changes which have occurred in her lifetime with calm, thankful gratitude.

Mrs. Jackson, 172 Lee Wright Homes, Venice, celebrated her 100th birthday on Christmas Day with visits from her grandchildren, their families and her many friends.

The centennial also was honored by friends and neighbors at a gift-laden Christmas party of the Madison-Venice Senior Citizen's Club, a group sponsored by the Madison Neighborhood EOC Center. She received many gifts and well-wishes from fellow club members.

Mrs. Jackson regards the modern-day amenities surrounding her with little fuss or awe. Her favorite past-times are viewing television and taking short rides by auto.

Television Fan
"She is a great television fan and watches all the programs," Mrs. James Harris of Venice, the wife of Mrs. Jackson's alert senior citizen has missed grandson, said. "She especially likes to keep up with the day-time serial stories. Doesn't want to miss an episode," she added.

For almost two weeks, the

GC Election Filing Period Opens; Eight Enter Race

Granite City's 1971 election activity got underway this morning as eight candidates for city offices filed nominating petitions with City Clerk Robert Stevens.

The filing period for the municipal election to be held April 6 next year — opened today. The last day for filing will be Feb. 1.

One candidate for assistant supervisor of Granite City also filed nominating petitions this morning despite an Illinois attorney general's opinion that no election of such officers will be necessary next year.

He is Carl Roach, 2640 Edgemoor Ave., one of three Granite City township assistant supervisors whose terms were scheduled to expire next year under previous election statutes.

Voters in Granite City will elect seven aldermen and a street superintendent in the April 6 balloting. All seven incumbent aldermen whose terms expire in 1971 have obtained petition forms, but only three of them were among those to file this morning.

Nonn Seeks Re-Election
They were Walter F. Nonn, 2711 Coughlin St., Ward Five; Gerald Parnley, 3221 N. 10th Ave., Ward Six; and Everett Morien, 2666 E. 24th St., Ward One.

Others filing petitions as candidates for aldermanic posts were Charles Von Nida, 2425 Jordan Ave., Ward Two; Leroy Mangiaracino, 505 Kirkpatrick Home, Ward One; Joseph Kastelic Sr., 3232 Carlson St., Ward Four; and Glen Romine, 2917 Oregon St., Ward Four.

Clayton "Lug" Hays, 2414 Grand Ave., filed petitions today as a candidate for street superintendent, a post now held by William Warfield. Warfield is expected to seek re-election.

Harrison was first in line to file petitions when the clerk's office opened at 8 a.m., after keeping vigil at the door to the clerk's office since 7 a.m. Saturday.

A large field of candidates for city posts available in next year's election was indicated by the number of petitions in circulation. Nineteen persons had obtained petition forms from the city clerk's office for aldermanic posts by Saturday, while four had picked up nominating petitions for the office of street superintendent.

Tree of Lights Campaign Extended
Extension of the 1970 "Tree of Lights" campaign through Thursday midnight was announced today by Lt. Donald R. Noyes of the Salvation Army, who said the fund still remains $1,148 short of the $10,000 goal.

Contributions from local residents and business firms totaling $8,852 had been tabulated this morning at the Salvation Army office, 1229 Nineteenth St. The amount has illuminated 354 bulbs on the Christmas tree in Memorial Park.

"We have spent up to our goal because of the great number of requests for assistance this year," Lt. Noyes stated today. The Salvation Army received 655 applications for Christmas food baskets, the largest number in five years, and has provided clothing and shoes for 415 school-age children.

More than 900 requests for aid were cleared through the Salvation Army office this Yuletide, Mrs. Pauline Weir, "Tree of Lights" chairman, said.

19 DAYS WITHOUT A QUAD-CITY TRAFFIC FATALITY
On the basis of petitions distributed by the clerk's office, Alderman Green presently faces the widest opposition in his bid for re-election in Ward Four. In addition to Green, five persons have obtained petitions as candidates for the aldermanic post in that ward.

They include Joseph Kastelic Sr., chief of detectives on the Granite City Police Department; Glen Romine, 2917 Oregon St.; Wade Campbell, 14 Briarcliff Drive; Carl Paschoff, 3113 Fehling Road, and Mary Batson, 3117 Aubrey Ave.

Morien also has faced heavy opposition in Ward One. Three persons in addition to Morien have obtained nominating petitions there. They are Eugene Burnett, 2243 Lee St.; Leroy

Raid Nets Marijuana, Opium; Seek Soldier

Authorities intercepted a package containing marijuana and opium which allegedly was mailed from Vietnam to a juvenile girl residing in the 2000 block of Dearborn street, in a raid on Thursday afternoon.

The raid was conducted by agents from the U.S. Customs Bureau of Illinois Bureau of Investigation, postal authorities and Granite City police.

The amount of contraband was undetermined. The package allegedly was mailed by a soldier who has returned from Vietnam. A warrant has been issued for his arrest.

800 Staff at General Steel for Few Months

With General Steel Industries Castings Division employment having dropped 50% from 1969 to 800, the past three months, the staff size has leveled off but it may be three to six months before there is a significant upturn, Richard L. Lich, division president, said today.

The cutback has been due to an almost non-existent market for new railroad cars. Production of new cars has been slow.

A buildup in the work force toward the normal level of 1500 will begin during 1971 with resumption of production of railroad car products, Thomas Kolesa, assistant to Lich, reported.

The statement issued by the Castings Division today related that "a continuation of the slowdown in demand for railroad freight car products has necessitated further reductions in the work force at the General Steel Industries plant located in Granite City."

"All inquiries for cars and underframes are being vigorously followed. However, the railroads are not buying equipment in quantity because of the serious economic situation."

"Currently the division does not have any flat car or pulp wood car underframes on order. The products normally make up the largest percentage of the plant's sales volume."

Facilities Consolidated
"Consolidation of some production facilities has been necessary as a result of the reduction in workload and certain departments are on limited operations."

"While railroad freight car business has declined, the division is at a good level for production on castings for steam turbine electric power generating plants, suspension systems for transit cars, and a wide range of other applications including cast steel hulls, and tanks for the M-60-A1 combat tank."

"In addition to pursuing all possibilities for existing products, the division is giving a high priority to the development of new product lines to utilize existing plant facilities."

Kolesa explained that lending institutions will not make loans, at any interest rate, to many railroads because of their present economic situation, forcing them to curtail their car orders.

He said that government action giving financial assistance to railroads may be necessary before the railroads will be able to resume their car orders.

If action was initiated immediately in Washington, D. C., it would be three months before the first orders would be received by the company because of governmental procedures and railroads' ordering processes.

Venereal Disease Clinic Again Offered at Hospital

After almost 20 years, the Tri-City V.D. Clinic is again being offered at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Granite City, with the cooperation of the medical staff.

The Illinois State Department of Health is cooperating in case finding and medical supply. However, until the prevalence of venereal disease is established and more state funds are available, the clinic will not be financed by the state.

"Since there is an urgency in treatment of such cases, the clinic will not be maintained on a 24-hour, seven-day-a-week basis," a spokesman said.

"If, as reported, the incidence is higher among teenagers, the new state law permitting medical doctors to treat teenagers for venereal disease without previous permission or knowledge of parents, makes possible a significant new approach to making treatment facilities available to V.D. patients without fear of parent reaction."

"The clinic facilities are thought to be an answer to the medical, indigent and the teenager."

Definite clinic hours will be determined later as incidence is determined.

Collide on Washington

As he pulled from the curb in the 2400 block of Washington Avenue at 3:15 p.m. Thursday, an auto driven by Charles Brewer, 2429 Delmar Ave., collided with a southbound vehicle operated by Deiores Cochran, 2324 E. 22nd St., police said.

Consider Alternate Plan Of County Apportionment

An alternate plan for reapportionment of Madison county townships into single-member districts probably will be devised by the Legislative Committee of the County Board of Supervisors, but not until boundaries of the 29 districts plan now being considered are finally determined and approved, Harry Briggs, chairman of the Legislative Committee, said today.

Briggs said that a tentative selection of 29 districts has been made under the original plan which will cut 20 members off the present county board when reapportionment legislation becomes effective in May, 1972.

It is too early, however, to outline boundaries of the districts because a number of revisions will be necessary. The redistricting will follow precinct rather than township lines, he said.

Under the existing program, 29 districts would be created, with one board member elected from each district. The new districts will be based on population ranging from 8,300 to 9,800 in each district.

Briggs said an alternate plan will be considered because of adoption statewide of the new Illinois Constitution which will give counties broad new powers under home rule provisions.

Among these new powers are the right to regulate for the protection of public health, safety, morals, welfare, to license, to tax and to incur debt.

Summers Shows Way In Cougar Victory

John "Champ" Summers of Granite City zeroed in 20 points in the last part of the basketball game as Southern Illinois University - Southwest surged to a 109-102 victory over the University of Wisconsin-Kenosha Wednesday night at Kenosha.

The game climaxed a pre-Christmas road venture which saw the local Cougar cagers take two of three decisions in three nights. They defeated the University of Illinois Chicago 85-81 last Monday and then bowed to the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee 104-96 last Tuesday night.

Summers, 6-2 guard who averaged 23 points a game last year but who was not used as a regular starter this year, totaled 22 points in the winning effort at Kenosha.

Teammate Bennie Throneburg totaled 23 points, but it was Summers' shuttling in the last 10 minutes which offset a comeback by the Kenosha Rangers.

The Cougars held a 47-45 half-time advantage and stretched it to a 14-point lead with five minutes to play, but the Rangers closed the gap to 101-96 with two minutes left. Summers, former Madison High School star, then put the game out of reach.

Rich Essington of Venice, who paced the Cougars with 30 points at Milwaukee, scored nine at Kenosha. Jerry Bloemer of Teutopolis came through with 17.

SU-SW totaled 45 field goals, 19 free throws and committed 22 personal fouls, while Kenosha hit 43 from the field and 16 from the charity stripe and also was assessed 22 fouls.

The Cougars now seven-and-a-half games into the season, will resume action on New Year's Day at the University of Tennessee at Martin. The local squad defeated Martin in a home game on Dec. 18. The next home game will be Jan. 5 against Chicago Circle.

Warrior Wrestlers Host 16-School Holiday Meet Tuesday, Wednesday

Competition will begin tomorrow in the 16-school GCHS holiday wrestling tournament, which will end Wednesday.

Top-rated teams include Sterling, Wood River, East St. Louis, Lincoln and Stephen Decatur. Lincoln is the defending champion, and the host Warriors were sixth a year ago.

Other schools entered are Alton, Belleville East, Bloomington, Carbondale, Champaign Central, Bethalto, East St. Louis, Jacksonville, Edwardsville, Roxana and Peoria Richwoods.

The tournament began in 1961 and Granite City won it both that year and in 1962. In 1963 Sterling was the winner, but Granite City came back for two straight wins in 1964 and 1965. In 1966 Stephen Decatur won the tournament but the next year Sterling took the title for the second time. The last time Granite City held the title was two seasons ago.

3 Champions Return

Three past champions will be returning for the tournament. They are Jimmy Ledbetter of Lincoln in the 145-pound class,

Vince Lopez of Sterling, champion in the 98-pound class, and Ty McMillin of Stephen Decatur who won third in the state last year in the 175-pound class and was the tournament champion in that class last year. This year the 175-pound class has been eliminated and McMillin will be trying his hand in the 185-pound event.

The first round will begin at noon on Tuesday and at 7 p.m. the second round will begin with wrestlers up to the 152-pound class wrestling. The remainder of the second round will begin at noon Wednesday and will be followed by the fourth and fifth rounds. Championship bouts should begin about 3 p.m. Wednesday and are expected to be completed by about 6 p.m.

Elimination System Used

The tournament is run on the International Elimination System which eliminates wrestlers for an accumulation of penalty points. Each competitor is allowed five and one-half penalty points and is eliminated when he reaches the sixth.

If a man is pinned, he is penalized with four points. Should he lose on a decision by 10 or more points, three and one-half penalty points are assessed against him. If a wrestler loses by less than 10 points, three penalty points are assessed and in a draw situation, each wrestler is given two penalty points.

A wrestler winning a bout by less than 10 points is assessed one point, and if the bout is won by more than 10 points one and one-half penalty points are assessed against him.

The rounds continue until there are only three wrestlers left in each weight class, and then the three are pitted against each other in a round robin for the championship. Champions normally wrestle six or seven matches before the tournament ends.

All rounds except the championships are determined by a random drawing in each weight class. The first round drawing has already been completed.

2-Day Goose Hunt Planned by State

A special two-day, four-county goose season has been requested by the Illinois Department of Conservation.

"The Federal Bureau of Sports Fisheries and Wildlife is considering a request by the conservation department to allow goose hunting in Alexander, Union, Jackson and Williamson counties on Jan. 2 and 3," said Jim Lockart, supervisor for the division of wildlife resources. "and approval is considered almost certain."

The regular season ended at 3 p.m. Wednesday and would have ended sooner if the allotted state quota of 28,000 geese had been reached. As of Dec. 15, only 13,300 geese had been harvested, with little expectation of reaching the quota, according to Lockart.

Gary Simpson Stars As Soph at LSU

Gary Simpson, former Granite City High School basketball star, is continuing his winning ways as a sophomore on the Louisiana State University team this season.

The 6-1 Simpson is being touted as a replacement for LSU's former great, Pete Maravich, a three-time All-American. He led the team in a recent 94-79 victory over Tulane with 27 points, hitting 50% from the free-throw line.

As a freshman last year he averaged 34.6 points a game. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Simpson, 2831 Buxton Ave.

City Election

Mangiaracino, 505 Kirkpatrick Homes, and Thomas Nesbit, 2807 Warren Ave.

Farmley, in Ward Six, is the only incumbent alderman for whose office no nominating petitions had yet been obtained Saturday. It was pointed out that petition forms need not be obtained from the city clerk, but may be obtained from other sources.

In Other Words

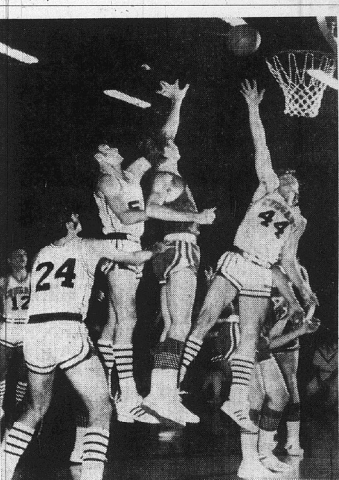

In Ward Two where Whitman's term expires, petitions of candidacy have been obtained by Chris Von Nida, 2445 Jordan St., and in Ward Three, where Boyd's term expires, petitions also have been obtained by Jerry Walker, 2458 E. 25th St., Willie J. Dailey, 2847 Harding St., has obtained petitions of candidacy in Ward Five as an apparent candidate to oppose Nomm. Charles Meyer, 50 Janday Lane, has obtained petitions of candidacy in Ward Seven.

Three other persons in addition to Wardfield have obtained petitions for the office of street superintendent. They are Clayton "Jug" Harrison, 2411a Grand Ave.; Lionel A. Porell, 2840 Michigan Ave., and Thomas Nesbit, 2807 Warren Ave.

Conservation Engineer Plans 1971 Retirement

Carl E. Thumman, Springfield, chief engineer for the Illinois Department of Conservation, today announced plans for retirement in 1971, and Roy J. Geiselman, also of Springfield, was appointed acting chief engineer by Director Henry N. Barkhausen.

"For almost 20 years, Carl Thumman has had an active part in construction planning and engineering work for the department, including the statewide lake program. The department has been fortunate in having a man of his talents at the engineering helm, and it is fortunate in having a man of Geiselman's ability to carry on this work," Barkhausen said.

St. Louis Group Hopes To Block New Airport
Joseph Cousin, executive director of the St. Louis Building and Construction Trades Council, said Saturday that the group has asked lawyers to try to block a major airport in Illinois by any means possible.
"I'll be a white elephant over there. Nobody will use it. I know I'm selling, but the new airport belongs on this side of the river," he said.
Legislation is pending in the St. Louis Board of Aldermen to permit St. Louis to cooperate with Illinois in construction of a $50 million airport.

Cousins conceded that St. Louisans would get jobs in building an airport in Illinois but said St. Louis locals would suffer if construction workers transferred to Illinois locals for the duration of the job. "My bread and butter are over here," he said. "I don't care about the east side."

St. Louis Group Hopes To Block New Airport
Joseph Cousin, executive director of the St. Louis Building and Construction Trades Council, said Saturday that the group has asked lawyers to try to block a major airport in Illinois by any means possible.
"I'll be a white elephant over there. Nobody will use it. I know I'm selling, but the new airport belongs on this side of the river," he said.
Legislation is pending in the St. Louis Board of Aldermen to permit St. Louis to cooperate with Illinois in construction of a $50 million airport.

Cousins conceded that St. Louisans would get jobs in building an airport in Illinois but said St. Louis locals would suffer if construction workers transferred to Illinois locals for the duration of the job. "My bread and butter are over here," he said. "I don't care about the east side."

Earl's to Move to Original Tri-City Grocery Co. Store

Earl Harris, president of A-H Sales, Inc., operating Earl's Surplus Discount Store, 19th St. at Niedringhaus Ave., today announced acquisition of the Tri-City Grocery Co. store and parking lot at 19th St. and Cleveland Blvd.

Earl's Store will move from its present quarters and across the street to the grocery building early in the new year, Harris reported.

"After 16 years of struggling for adequate space, it's going to be a relief to have plenty of room for our sporting goods, as well as having our own parking lot," Harris commented.

The building which has been purchased is the location of the original store of the Tri-City Grocery Co., founded in 1914 by Charles W. Pershall.

Closes on Christmas Eve. The store closed its doors permanently on Christmas Eve, Dec. 24, after more than 50 years of continuous operation.

While it had remained in business at the same location, the store was remodeled many times due to changing trends and procedures in grocery retailing.

With the closing, Tri-City Grocery has 20 stores in Illinois and Missouri.

Its headquarters are at 16th and State Streets, Granite City. Samuel E. Pershall Sr., son of the late founder, is chairman and S. E. Pershall Jr. is president.

Donna Jean Dowthitt Bride of John D. Young

The wedding of Miss Donna Jean Dowthitt and John D. Young took place Saturday evening at Mt. Zion Baptist Church in Piasa, Ill.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Cede, 1710 Fifth St., Madison. Mr. Young's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John V. Young of Parma, Ill.

Rev. Wilbur Snider heard the vows of the couple at 7:30 before the candlelit altar. Evergreens and red velvet bows provided the setting for the service and candles lighted the aisle through which the procession passed.

Mrs. Raymond Alexander of Gillespie, Ill., was the soloist, accompanied at the organ by Miss Ruth Walton of Lebanon.

The bride wore a Victorian gown of ivory satin with appliques of reembodyed Alencon lace and seed pearls. Long sleeves with Alencon trim came to points at the hands and a floor-length madonna veil of illusion net framed in lace was attached to a band of lace and pearls. The bride held a bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Ray Corlew, a sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. Mr. Corlew served as best man. The ushers were Hans Carney and David Beard.

The matron of honor wore a floor-length gown of ruby red velvet with an Empire waist and white lace trim. A red bow was in her hair and she carried a basket of white poinsettias. The candles were lighted by Joy Griggs and Chris Rapoff, a niece and cousin of the bride.

A reception was held at the church immediately following the ceremony and the newlyweds left for a tour of the southern states. They will reside in Jerseyville.

The former Miss Dowthitt, a first grade teacher in the Medora, Ill., school, is a graduate of Belmont College and is listed Who's Who in American colleges and universities.

Mr. Young, also a teacher in Medora, graduated from Arkansas State University.

MRS. JOHN D. YOUNG, a holiday bride. Before her wedding Saturday evening in Piasa, Ill., she was Miss Donna Jean Dowthitt.

Farmers need complete and accurate farm business records to keep pace with rapid changes in agriculture.

Modern economic tools are just as important to a farm operation as the latest mechanical gadgets. It takes more money to operate large farm businesses, and interest rates on borrowed money are high.

Young farmers need more credit to finance growing operations. Lenders are asking for more detailed farm records before they make loans.

A simple account book in which to keep records for income tax purposes is the minimum record needed. Such a book is published by the University of Illinois Department of Agricultural Economics and is available at the county extension office for a small fee.

Many Madison county farmers use this account book.

Other records systems allow a complete farm business analysis and provide the services of a fieldman trained to help farmers with business analysis and management decisions.

The most important single lesson gleaned from summaries of Illinois farm business records kept by farmers during the past few years is the importance of providing for growth in size of business on farms producing less than $50,000 of sales a year.

Require Higher Earnings

Increased costs of family living due to inflation and the desire for higher standards of living requires higher net farm earnings.

Higher net earnings result from improved efficiencies with existing resources or added investments in the highest profit enterprises.

Farms do have profitable enterprises, and farmers are expanding these enterprises to increase net earnings.

Hog producers have problems now with hog prices nearly $10 a hundred pounds less than a year ago. Corn makes up much of the hog ration, and corn prices are higher due to lower production of corn resulting from corn blight disease.

A few Madison county swine producers have asked if they should go out of the hog business now. Often the in-and-outers go in the hog business at the wrong time and go out at the wrong time. Adjustments in hog supply usually occur by many hog producers cutting back a little in the number of hogs they feed.

It appears that livestock producers, rather than grain farmers, will be the ones who suffer most from the corn blight problem of 1970.

Corn and soybean prices are nearly enough higher now compared with a year ago to offset the loss in corn yield due to corn blight.

Feed Costs Higher

Feed is a large expense item in feeding livestock. Feed costs are higher. Livestock prices are the same to lower than a year ago. Quality of the corn for feed is lower.

Dairying is a large farm enterprise in Madison county. More than $3 million annual sales of milk from 7,500 cows in Madison county places us among the top dairy counties in Illinois.

A new issue of the United States Department of Agriculture Dairy Herd Improvement sire summary list is now available for reference at the county extension office. More than 10,000 dairy bulls of all breeds are listed for 1970.

The predicted difference reported for each dairy sire is a measure of the breeding merit of the sire for production. It is an estimate of how much more or less milk and butterfat you can expect from a large number of future daughters of the sire compared with their herd-mates.

Predicted difference is the best available estimate of a sire's breeding value. The values shown in the report can be used to rank sires for production.

Dairymen are invited to use this sire summary as a guide in selecting sires to use in their herds.

State Checks to Be Issued With New Data System

Michael J. Howlett, state Auditor of Public Accounts, will begin writing state checks with new "third generation" data processing equipment, effective Jan. 4, it was announced today.

Banks, currency exchanges and stores which have honored state checks for many years will immediately notice a difference between the present "hard cards" with square little holes and the new paper checks, which look more like standard bank checks.

The main reason for the switch in equipment is the growth of state government. The number of warrants written by the auditor has increased dramatically and is taxing the capacity of existing equipment and personnel. For example, the number of warrants written in October 1970 increased 16 percent from October 1969, Howlett said.

The auditor now writes more than 680,000 checks a month. About half of them are for public assistance recipients. More than 150,000 are salary checks of state employees. About 120,000 more are payments to commercial vendors. The rest are mostly pensions to retired government employees, fuel tax refunds and payments to doctors for medical services to the indigent.

Will Reduce Cost

Howlett said the new system will do more work at a lower cost to the taxpayers. One of the work force will shrink somewhat from its present level, although the present level is lower than when Howlett was elected more than 10 years ago.

When fully operational, equipment rental costs will drop from $23,276 a month for the present "second generation" equipment to $19,927 for the new system, a saving of $3,349 a month.

The existing equipment has been working around the clock with three shifts of employees. The new equipment will enable a reduction to two shifts.

The new equipment will write warrants more than four times as fast as the old, 776 warrant a minute instead of 188. In the sorting operations, the new equipment will do in six minutes what the old performed in an hour.

There will be many improvements in services. The statistical summary of state spending which the auditor publishes monthly and distributes to the statehouse newsroom and forment reimbursements and forment fund and appropriation accounting.

Reconciliation of checks after cashing will be faster, and it will be easier to look up records and make copies of checks. State agencies and inquiring reporters.

Checks will be imprinted on special watermarked paper which will be more difficult to alter than the "hard cards." State employees who have been receiving a statement of earnings and deductions on a separate card with their checks will now receive it on a long stub, which they will detach and save before cashing the check.

Ordinary staples and staples will not keep the check from going through the reconciliation system as was the case with the perforated hard card.

Army Engineers Open Bids for Dike Repairs

Colonel Carroll N. LeTeller, District Engineer of the U. S. Army Engineer District, St. Louis, announced that bids have been opened in the District office for minor repairs to revertment and dikes.

The apparent low bid for four bids received was submitted by Eugene Lohr & Company, Columbia, Illinois, and Patton-Tully Transportation Co., Memphis, Tenn. (a joint venture). Their bid was $1,062,000.

The work consists of minor repairs to revertment and dikes. Revertment work also includes minor bank grading, placing bank paving stone in damaged areas and to the top of the high bank in wave wash areas, constructing quarry run stone toe dikes across roundouts in re-verted banklines, and placing quarry run stone blanket to stabilize the slopes behind roundouts and in other specified areas.

The work also includes repairs to existing dikes. Approximately 200,000 tons of dike (quarry run) stone and 110,000 tons of bank paving stone will be required.

The work is located above the mouth of the Ohio River in Mississippi, Cape Girardeau, Perry and Ste. Genevieve Counties in Missouri, and Alexander and Randolph Counties in Illinois.

The work is expected to be completed within 360 calendar days after the contractor has received written notice to proceed.

Lucido-Schwent Nuptials Held Saturday

The wedding of Miss Marleen Katherine Schwent and Richard Joseph Lucido took place Saturday afternoon at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Schwend, 1617 Wellington Drive. Mr. Lucido's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Nick Lucido Jr., 3401 Franklin Ave.

Arrangements of white and blue flowers decorated the church for the two o'clock ceremony performed by the Rev. Virgil Mank, and a reception was held afterward at the VFW Hall.

For her wedding the bride chose a gown of white organza with a raised waist and a slight sweep train. A satin band extended down the front of the gown, around the waist and high collar and formed a deep border around the full skirt. Embroidered daisies were scattered throughout the gown and full, sheer sleeves ended in slender cuffs.

A picture profile of satin secured a cathedral veil of English illusion bordered with satin and the bride carried an Enwardian bouquet of white roses, stephanotis, ice blue roses and baby breath.

The attendants, Miss Darleen Schwent, twin sister of the bride, as maid of honor, Misses Susan and Sandy Lucido, twin cousins of the bridegroom, Mrs. Judy Martin, Miss Kathy Bakamp, Miss Karen Bligh, and Mrs. Paulette Pleiman, the bride's cousin, bridesmaids, were dressed alike in long powder blue velvet around the cuffs, and the velvet boleros. They carried blue velvet bouquets with crescent arrangements of ice blue carnations, and baby breath attached.

A little flower girl, Paige Cutler, a niece of the bride, was dressed like the bridesmaids. She carried a miniature of their bouquets.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Schwent wore a gown of dress over taffeta with beadwork.

Proceeds are to be used to take a group of children on a train trip to Springfield Feb. 12, Lincoln's birthday. The club also has donated $100 to the Salvation Army for Christmas.

Senator Finds Big Spending Plans But the Poor Still Being Ignored

By U.S. SENATOR ADLAI E. STEVENSON III

Having served as your junior senator for one month, I want to make my first report to you. I hope to share with you the thinking that underlies my views on such diverse but related questions as the Headstart program and the superconductor transport.

My first month in Washington has been a busy and at times a baffling period in my life. The ways of the Senate are often mysterious and, in many respects, unlike the practices of other public institutions with which I have been acquainted. But the mysteries of the Senate do not account for all of my feelings of bewilderment. As a very junior senator—and as a citizen, I am bewildered, as many concerned citizens are, by things that are happening in this nation—and by some things that are not happening but ought to be.

We have resources of money, manpower and technology which could be harnessed to solve the problems of a generation ago. And yet some of our children still go hungry.

Some of our families still live in the squalor of the slums. Some Americans are denied adequate medical care because they can't afford it.

We see, perhaps as never before, the gap between things as they are and as they really could be in this rich, powerful country. And we don't detect any sense of national direction or strong moral purpose.

I keep wondering where the great men are who once spoke to our deencies and our good sense and intelligence as a free people.

Among the overriding issues before us, peace must be foremost because it is the first condition of human survival. In Vietnam, our government is opposed to unilateral withdrawal, and yet we pursue a policy of unilateral withdrawal.

Instead of insisting upon a political settlement which could lead to the honorable conclusion of hostilities and to self-determination for the people of South Vietnam, we are bombing the North.

Instead of insisting upon a settlement that would provide for the return of our prisoners, we raid a prisoner-of-war camp and greatly endanger the men held hostages in North Vietnam.

I have a uneasy feeling that in the highest places we don't understand that to win the return of our prisoners we must end the war—not prolong it.

I have the uneasy suspicion that we don't yet realize we cannot end the war by enlarging it.

An early end to the war in Vietnam is only one of the indispensable ingredients of peace. There is also the urgent necessity of scaling back a mad arms race which threatens our humanity with extinction and consumes billions of dollars.

By threatening the holocaust and diverting billions from domestic programs that are desperately needed, vast sums spent in the arms race are a drain on the national security contribution to our national security.

A second condition of human survival is the preservation of our environment. And yet it is still possible that in this fiscal year the federal government will spend more to pollute the air than it will to preserve it.

That was one of the issues involved in the Senate vote on an appropriation of $250 million to continue the development of the superconductor transport.

I voted against this appropriation, as I said I would during the campaign—and for two basic reasons.

At the present time it appears that the SST would, if developed, pose a new threat to our environment. Moreover, the development of the SST could cost the federal government $14 billion which could be better spent on mass transportation in our clogged cities.

It was said in the Senate that the development of the SST was necessary to provide jobs and stimulate the economy. That is an argument which could be made in support of virtually every project, and we cannot support every project. We must have priorities.

Only a few days earlier it had been argued in the Senate that the economy and the budget could not afford an additional $181 million for Headstart and other educational and manpower development programs. I voted for that expenditure of funds.

The 92nd Congress, which convenes in January, is going to have to face squarely the fact that the economy is in a state of upheaval. And we are going to have to face squarely, too, the nation's deteriorating economy.

As of this writing, 4.9 million men and women across the nation are out of work. The rate is 5.3% and for some the rate is far worse—the unemployment rate for young blacks has reached 25%.

In Illinois, about 125,000 more people are on welfare than a year ago. These are cold and impersonal statistics, but they speak of human misery of wasted human resources, of crime and high taxes.

Yet only now does it appear that the government will pursue an expansionary economic policy. Here, as in other matters of national concern, our course is unclear.

We still don't seem to have recognized that billions of dollars for SSTs and ARMs are inflationary dollars that we can't create the national wealth which dollars for housing and for schools and hospitals and mass transit facilities could and would provide.

We still don't seem to realize that dollars for such constructive purposes are not inflationary because they supply public needs and meet public demands.

In a sense, priorities must be our first priority. We must draw up a new list of national priorities for the future. We must face the consequences of the war-wasted years.

We must decide—and soon—what things we really need in order to make possible a better life for all Americans. And we must decide what we can do without. We must regain somehow our balance, our equilibrium, our sense of values.

The Executive Branch of our government prepares the budget and thereby has the initiative for establishing national priorities.

The Congress is the policy-making branch of our government. It has the power of appropriations.

I intend to use my voice and my vote in the Senate to turn this country away from the road to war, the road to militarism, and onto the road to peace. In this fiscal year, I will be doing my best to do this.

As we celebrate this holiday season, we are mindful of mankind's age-old yearning for peace on earth. It is my prayerful hope that in 1971 we will have the wisdom and the will to assure a world at peace.

It was amazing how well they were able to contain the fire with the area it began.

The volunteers—students, staff, and citizens—who helped salvage records and furnishings during the fire are also to be commended.

We thank the policemen for the services rendered during this time.

We greatly appreciated the work done, in record time, by contractors and union people in clearing the debris and making repairs to the fire-ravaged building so that operations could be resumed safely for the students and faculty at the high school.

The students are to be congratulated on the way in which they have responded. The cooperation and understanding they have demonstrated under these difficult circumstances is outstanding.

It was heartwarming to see the spirit of understanding and community during this very trying time, and we extend our sincere thanks to all.

We wish to thank all those who assisted us. The fire department, from Granite City, Mitchell, Long Lake, Venice and the Army Depot, are to be highly commended for the way in which they did the job of extinguishing the fire.

$15,264 Grant Awarded To Aid Job Trainees

A grant of $15,264 has been received by a Southern Illinois University psychologist for use in a one-year project designed to upgrade the language and arithmetic skills of disadvantaged and currently unemployed persons.

The funds have been received by Richard M. Sanders, associate professor in SIU's Rehabilitation Institute, from the Illinois Board of Vocational Education and Rehabilitation.

Designated "On-the-job Learning of Appropriate Production Skills and Improved Academic Achievement," the program will provide necessary functional training of a wide variety of job trainees who are clients of the SIU Rehabilitation Institute's Employment Training Center near Ordill, Sanders said.

Based on preliminary tests, programs in mathematics run up to at least a fourth-grade level and language usage of a basic vocabulary of the 1,000 most commonly used words in English will be tailored to each individual and may be taught by use of fully automated devices while the trainee is located at his normal work training station.

"It is our intention," Sanders said, "to demonstrate that trainees can receive from three to six hours of daily instruction without any interruption or decline their work adjustment training or production rates."

Trainees are referred to the SIU Employment Training Center for work adjustment by public agencies such as the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation, Department of Mental Health, Department of Public Aid, Illinois State Employment Service, and area secondary special education departments. Subjects for this study will be selected by the Employment Training Center according to its usual admission standards.

Drug Information Books Available at CYS Office

Selected publications on drug dependence and abuse, compiled into a special educational packet, are available to parents and organizations from the Coordinated Youth Services office, 1255 Niedringhaus Ave.

Announcing the new public information program, C. A. "Bud" MacMillan, CYS executive director, said that packets of drug abuse information material may be obtained from his office at a cost of $3 per packet.

Two other informative publications, available to the public without charge, include "The Glue Sniffing Problem" and "Speed Kills: The Amphetamine Abuse Problem."

The area's foremost agency in drug abuse counseling, the Tri-Cities Coordinated Youth Services, a United Fund agency, has led the way in offering a comprehensive program in dissemination of information concerning the use of narcotics.

In addition to pamphlets offered the public, MacMillan noted that area organizations increasingly are utilizing the agency's speaker's bureau which provides films and programs covering all aspects of the drug problem.

Coordinated Youth Services was the first health-care agency to initiate a confidential drug counseling and information service, through which individuals needing help by wishing to give information may do so anonymously without fear of legal consequences.

The confidential telephone service still is available by calling 576-2383 and asking for Mrs. Douglas.

Parents of adolescents, especially those between 12 and 14, will find "The Glue Sniffing Problem" booklet most enlightening, MacMillan said. National estimates of the number of children and adolescents who sniff glue runs into many thousands.

Boys make up the large majority of cases, usually under 17 years of age, with the biggest percentage in the 12 to 14 age bracket.

Easily Available
The materials for glue sniffing are readily available, the CYS director pointed out. A common source is the cement glue found in toy kits used for assembling models. Other plastic or cement glues suitable for sniffing are equally cheap and easily obtainable.

the symptoms and the effects of glue sniffing is reviewed in the free pamphlet, MacMillan said.

From the "Speed Kills" booklet, parents can learn the danger signals that may signify their youngster is "indulging" in speed, a common designation for the amphetamine family of drugs.

Most speed abusers are immature and become involved with speed when they are about 16 years old, an age when adolescents are likely to be facing up to the challenges of maturity.

Many young people on speed suffer from personality disturbances so severe they try to block out reality and its commitments and decisions, MacMillan explained.

Recognizing the alarming spread of speed and amphetamine abuse in America today, young people as well as their physicians, teachers, counselors, public officials, parents and law enforcement agencies should familiarize themselves with the patterns of abuse, the CYS official said.

People of all ages and from many walks of life have become involved with the amphetamine drugs, taking them orally or through injection, and their high abuse potential constitutes an alarming medical and social problem.

The booklet offered free by the CYS office replaces myth and folklore with the most valid information available, MacMillan noted.

Pamphlets contained in the special $3 packet, include: "The Narcotic Addiction Problem," by Charles Winick, Ph.D.; "Drug Dependence: Its Significance and Characteristics"; "Facilities for Treatment and Rehabilitation of Narcotic Drug Users and Addicts"; "A Guide to Some Drugs Which Are Subject to Abuse"; "Drug Addicts Getting Younger—A Close Look at Drug Abuse by Children 8-12 Years of Age."

"Dependence on LSD and Other Hallucinogenic Drugs"; "Three Approaches to the Case Work Treatment of Narcotics Addicts," by Leon Brill; "The Up and Down Drugs—Amphetamines and Barbiturates"; "The LSD Controversy," by Jerome Levine and Arnold M. Ludwig; "LSD—Some Questions and Answers"; reprinted articles from "Current History," a monthly magazine of world affairs; the Encyclopedia Britannica; plus the two free booklets described earlier.

The drug information packet may be picked up at the Coordinated Youth Services office, MacMillan advised. The expense involved prohibits mailing the packets, he added.

Robert Burroughs of the CYS staff heads the drug abuse information and counseling service at the local agency's office.

SIU is 17th Largest School in Enrollment

Southern Illinois University is ranked as the nation's 17th largest school in total student enrollment, according to the latest figures in a nationwide survey.

The 51st "School and Society" magazine survey lists SIU with 35,446 full and part-time students at its Carbondale and Southern campuses. Last year SIU was 20th in total enrollment.

The University slipped a notch from 17th to 18th in the fulltime student count, however, being replaced by the University of Tennessee.

It marks the third straight year that SIU has been ranked in the survey's "Big 30" of U.S. universities. The study is done by Garland Parker, vice provost for admissions at the University of Cincinnati.

SIU passed Purdue University, Northeastern (Mass.) University and the University of Maryland in the latest total enrollment census.

As usual the national leaders were the multi-campus systems of the University of New York and California State Colleges.

City to Mark Curbing With Aluminum Paint

A new method of traffic markers will be used by the Granite City Street Department in an effort to reduce the number of accidents on the State Street curve at 15th Street.

A suggestion by Alderman Walter Nann, chairman of the city council's Street and Alley Committee, that fluorescent aluminum paint be used to mark curbs on State Street at the intersections, on both sides of the street, was approved by city council members last week.

Nann said the new type marking is experimental and may not produce results, but added that "we're willing to try any system to cut down accidents at that point... motorists keep knocking down one utility pole after another." The council authorized purchase of the special paint for 100 feet north and south of MRS. RANDY K. CHOAT. She was married Saturday at St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church in Madison.

Donna Raye Herschbach, Randy K. Choat Wed

Miss Donna Raye Herschbach, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Herschbach, Clearview Acres, East St. Louis, and Randy K. Choat, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Marlin Choat, 2104 Dawn Place, Granite City, were married Saturday afternoon at St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church in Madison.

Rev. Sylvester Micek officiated at the two o'clock ceremony. The bride wore a gown of ivory crepe fashioned with a square neck trimmed with Guipure lace. The lace molded the Empire bodice, encircled the waistline and trimmed the cuffs of the long, full sleeves. A full sweep detachable train bordered with more of the lace over the skirt which was banded with lace at the hemline. A bouffant illusion veil was secured with a beaded cap and the bride held a bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Helen McGarrahan, organist, accompanied the vocalist, Mrs. Eleanor Tutka, as she sang "O Promise Me"; "Pans Angelicus"; and "Ave Maria".

Mrs. Marjorie Becker of Alton, a sister of the bride, was honor attendant and there were two bridesmaids, Miss Pam Choat, the bridegroom's sister, and Miss Terry Doza of East St. Louis. Dressed alike, they were in ruffled red velvet gowns with Victorian bodices, high necks of ivory lace with jobs and matching velvet buttons. Lace trimmed the long full sleeves which were tightly cuffed. Their flowers were arrangements of pink carnations. A little flower girl, Vickie Symcek, niece of the bride, dressed like the older girls, held a miniature bouquet of the same flowers. Richard Choat, the bridegroom's brother, carried the rings.

Tom McIlroy was best man and the list of groomsmen and ushers included Larry Groeper of Washington, Mo., Richard Herschbach, William Jenkins of Alton, and Mike Fuller.

The wedding reception was held at the Polish Hall in Madison with Mrs. Thelma Symcek in charge of the guest book. The former Miss Herschbach is a graduate of the Madison High School. Mr. Choat graduated from the Granite City High School. The couple will live in Yuma, Ariz.

MRS. STEVEN E. BRISTOL. Her wedding took place Saturday afternoon at Bethel Lutheran Church in St. Louis. The bride is the former Linda Jean Froemling.

Linda Froemling Becomes Bride of Steven Bristol

In a Christmas setting of poinsettias, a brightly lighted tree and evergreens at Bethel Lutheran Church in University City, Miss Linda Jean Froemling, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Froemling, 61 Oaklawn Drive, was married Saturday afternoon to Steven Emory Bristol a son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Bristol of Barnhart, Mo.

Candles in hurricane lamps entwined with evergreens and white ribbon illuminated the white-carpeted aisle down which the procession passed, the bride escorted by her father, who gave her in marriage.

Pastor Alfred Bult of Bethel Church, and the Rev. J. Louis Osting, pastor of Hope Lutheran Church in Granite City, officiated at the 5:30 service. Henry Engelhardt presided at the organ and the Bethel Bell Choir sang "Chime in Tune" (Koupur) and "Good Christian Men Rejoice", arranged by Lein. The processional was "Jesus Joy of Man's Desiring," "Concerto in C Major," by J. S. Bach, was used as the recessional, and "Joy To The World" was the hymn by the congregation.

The bride was lovely in a floor-length gown of ivory silk-faced satin and silk organza lavishly trimmed with re-embroidered Alencon lace and seed pearls. The bodice, fashioned with a high neckline and long pointed sleeves, was of satin, silk organza, re-embroidered lace and pearls. The skirt, cut A-line, was trimmed with lace motifs, and Alencon motifs and scalloped lace completely encircled the hemline.

The train, which swept gracefully from the high rise waist, was of silk illusion with a border of matching lace and seed pearls. A veil of silk illusion was attached to a headpiece of satin covered with lace to match that of the gown, and white roses, stephanotis and ivy were combined in the bride's cascade bouquet.

The attendants, Miss Barbara Gosch, a cousin of the bride, as maid of honor, and another cousin, Miss Cynthia Gosch, and Miss Lois Kueker, bridesmaids, wore identical gowns with ruby red velvet Empire bodices, long bishop sleeves of velvet and high necklines. Floor-length, the skirts were of pink crepe featuring braided belts of velvet and crepe. Attached to the headpieces of velvet and crepe were matching red veils.

All of the attendants carried cascades of Forever Yours roses and greenery.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Froemling chose a pink silk warranted costume with pink and green bead trim, while the bridegroom's mother appeared in Burgundy shantung with pearl trim. Both wore matching accessories and phalopsis orchid corsages.

Robert Froemling, a brother of the bride, was best man, and the corps of groomsmen and ushers included Gerald Berendt, Sargent Stover, Larry Talkeur and David Lynch.

A buffet reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church directly after the ceremony in charge of the guest book. After a brief trip the newlyweds will reside in Granite City.

The bride graduated from Lindenwood College in St. Charles, Mo., with a Music Education degree. A member of Mu Phi Epsilon sorority she is now teaching music in the Hazelwood, Mo., school district. The bridegroom, a graduate of the Crystal City, Mo., High School, is presently with the Wahl Shoe Co. in St. Louis.
